

APU Campus Visits for High School Students, Teachers, and Cram School Staff

Admissions Office (Domestic)

If you wish to visit APU's campus, please follow the guidelines below.

【Areas Open for Campus Visits】

Visitors are free to explore the campus. Please refer to the campus map and be mindful of the daily lives of APU students while visiting. However, the AP House, the international student dormitory, is only accessible to residents and cannot be observed by visitors. Thank you for your understanding.

【Parking】

If you are visiting by private vehicle, please inform the security office at the entrance that you wish to visit the campus. You will be directed to the designated visitor parking area.

【Materials and Event Information for High School Students and Teachers】

If you would like to collect university brochures, admissions guides, and other materials, please feel free to take them from the shelf in front of the cafeteria or on the first floor of Building A, near the Admissions Office (Domestic).

Additionally, APU regularly hosts events for high school students, teachers, and cram school staff. Please check the event page on the APUmate website for prospective students and consider joining.

【Training Programs at APU】

If high school students or guardians wish to visit APU as a group for a training program or other purposes, please contact us in advance.

AED(Automatic External Defibrillator) Installation Locations

APU has had AEDs installed throughout the campus to prevent death by cardiac arrest. AEDs can be easily operated by anyone as first aid until the ambulance arrives.

The APU Cafeteria

APU cafeteria is open to everyone including visitors to campus. Please note that payment is in cash only. In addition to noodles, rice, and curry, the cafeteria offers APU original dishes, limited time regional cuisine, as well as international food events. The most popular menu is Thai Curry (slightly spicy)! The takeout menu includes homemade bread, hamburgers, cookies, and so on. In 2015, the cafeteria was awarded Muslim-friendly authentication for its halal food options.

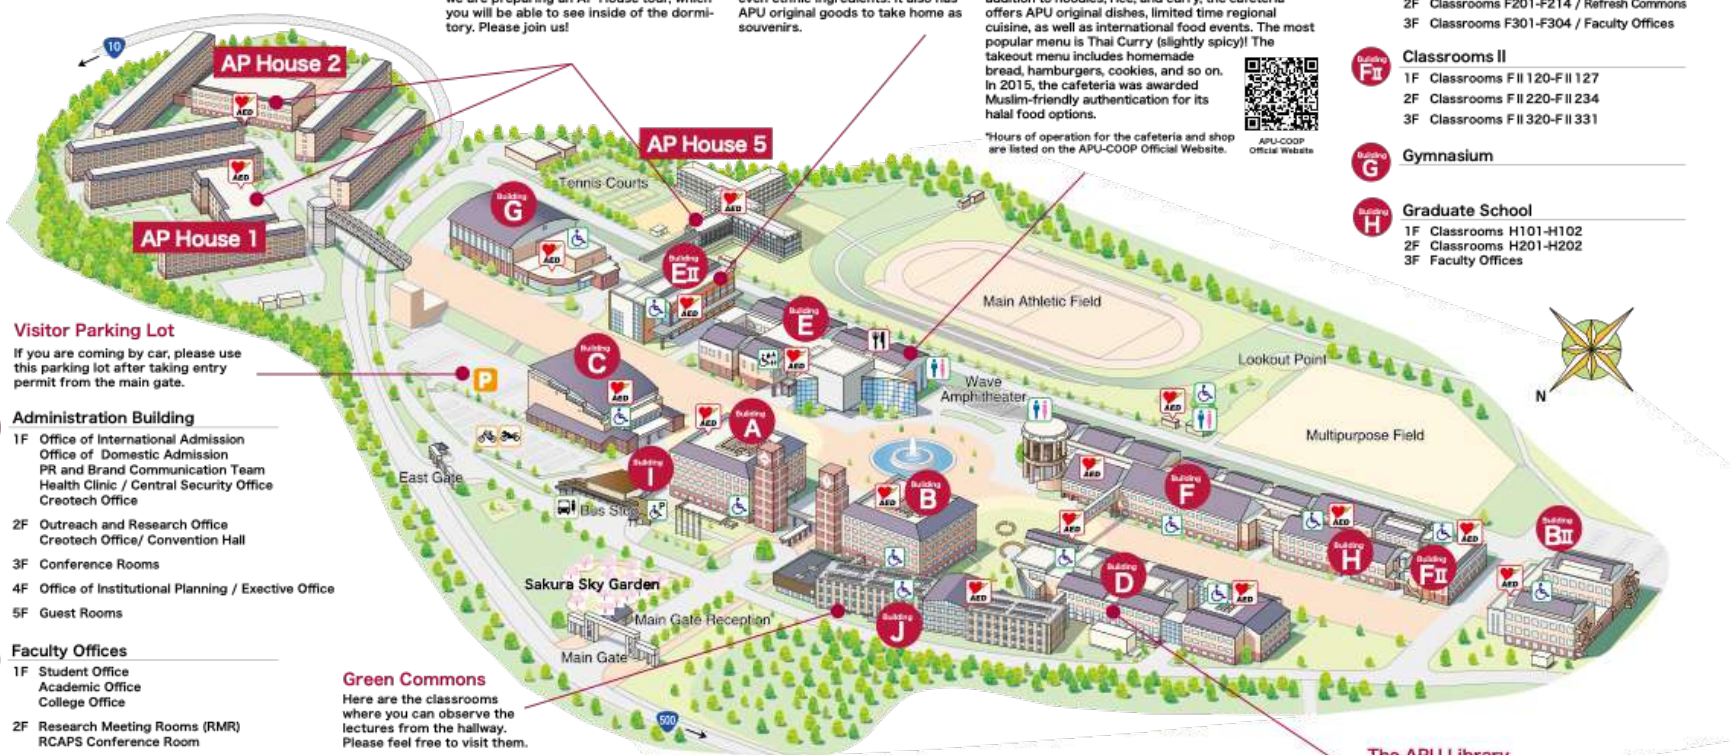

*Hours of operation for the cafeteria and shop are listed on the APU-COOP Official Website.

The APU Shop

The APU shop stocks foods, daily necessities, stationery, books, and even ethnic ingredients. It also has APU original goods to take home as souvenirs.

AP House 1 • 2 • 5

Only dormitory students are allowed to enter AP House. During the Open Campus, we are preparing an AP House tour, which you will be able to see inside of the dormitory. Please join us!
